MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Serving AANLCP at a national level is a great way to become a leader in the nurse life care planning community and contribute to AANLCP’s mission, vision, and goals.

It is also the perfect avenue to meet and connect with your colleagues to advance AANLCP’s strategic plan for our vibrant, relevant, and impactful future. Your expertise, interests, and vision are essential to shaping Nurse Life Care Planners today and tomorrow.

Being part of the executive board to serve the professional community of Nurse Life Care Planners is an honor. It also requires dedication, time and teamwork.

As you all have received an email informing you of the open period of Executive Board nominations, we ask you to send in your nominations/applications for the position of President-Elect and/or Secretary. For more information please visit https://member.aanlcp.org/ or click below to submit a nomination.

We look forward to welcoming the new board members!
This month, the executive board members met with the chairs of the committees. Continue reading to get the latest news on what is happening within the committees. We invite you to join a committee, please contact info@aanlcp.org.

The conference committee’s co-chairs Jess Urie and Andrea Goicoechea held the first meeting with their committee members April 21, 2022.

Thank you Jess and Andrea for stepping up and taking the lead!

A lot of work and time is involved and the Association appreciates your dedication, enthusiasm and time spent. The conference will be held March 9th - 12th, 2023, and initial brainstorming regarding topics, speakers, entertainment and exhibitors were on the agenda.

If you have ideas, connections, and time to support the conference committee, and would like to get involved please reach out at conferencecommittee@aanlcp.org. We would love to have you join!

Five benefits you get when you join a committee!

1. Experience – Experience how AANLCP works and the effort that goes into making the association successful!
2. Relationships/Networking – Joining a committee helps you build stronger relationships with other Life Care Planners and affiliates.
3. Brand Building – Build your brand by getting involved, it’s not about who you know anymore—it’s about who knows you!
4. Development – Committee participation leads to uncovering business insights you can utilize in your professional and personal development!
5. Leadership Opportunities – Through active participation on a committee, you will have the desire to someday become as a board member!
Journal Committee

Not only was the last journal committee meeting well attended and packed with ideas, great energy and visions for the upcoming editions, our editor Stephen Axtell shared his knowledge and expertise on the topic: “Bias Free Language” with the committee members.

What a great learning experience!

Thank you Stephen for providing the end of the meeting educational session. If you would like to know more about becoming an author or supporting AANLCP’s journal, please reach out to the editor at Journal@aanlcp.org.

The meetings are held every first Wednesday of the month at 8:00pm eastern / 7:00pm central / 6:00pm mountain / 5:00pm pacific.

Please RSVP.

AANLCPs Research Committee

AANLCPs Research Committee continues to move forward. We have a wonderful group of volunteers dedicated to moving Life Care Planning forward.

Our members are:
Shirley Daugherty (Co-chair) Erin O'Connell (Co-chair)
Shelene Giles Anne Gowing
Jan Dolan Victoria Powell
April Pettengill Dena Ramsey
Rebecca Bailey Kimberly Reen

We have created a list of upcoming research topics and are getting ready to select a statistician to assist in the research process. We look forward to our journey ahead and are excited about our upcoming topic.
Becky Czarnik, chair of the education committee, has exciting topics and amazing speakers lined up for the rest of 2022.

Thank you Becky for your continued dedication and time to make the webinars a success.

AANLCP offers monthly webinars to promote education, research, and standards as they relate to the practice of Nurse Life Care Planning. You can view the upcoming webinar topics at https://member.aanlcp.org/webinars/.

Serving in one of the AANLCP’s committees is vital to our Association and we need you to join the education committee! If you would like more information or are interested to join, please contact info@aanlcp.org. We would love to welcome you!

Five more benefits you get when you join a committee!

6. Service – Contribute to the growth and future success of the organization
7. Pay it Forward – Give back to the industry by making a difference in committee involvement
8. A chance for people to see you in action – show people how great you are!
9. Community – AANLCP is made up of a wonderful community of knowledgeable and helpful Nurse Life Care Planners and affiliates.
10. Insider Sneak Peaks! You’ll know what’s happening before everyone else!
